

DA9012
Media Art Nexus

Eligibility: ADM

Ina Conradi (Associate Professor)

G01 (63053): Tuesdays, 1630 – 1930 at ART-02-17 (IM Game Lab)

*Upper left: Students from University of Art & Design Hamburg; Upper right Elbphilharmonie concert hall
Below Refrain/Reflex by Alvin Ling & Aaron James Carpio Sacil, 15 m by 2 m LED, Singapore 2018*

Learning Objective: The course provides you with the experience necessary to create experimental time based media art for local and international media façade, architecture and digital placemaking.

Content: Elbphilharmonie in Hamburg Germany is one of the largest and acoustically most advanced concert halls in the world. This is the second year that students from Germany UA Hamburg, Art & Design class and Singapore NTU ADM Media Art Nexus class will be creating experimental time based media for two site - specific venues: 18 m by 4 m @Elbphilharmonie concert hall main entrance & 15 m by 2 m LED wall in Singapore. There will be two premieres in Germany and in Singapore.

Pre-requisite required basics of Adobe Aftereffects (or if animation student Maya, or Cinema 4D etc). Past ELMAN Project www.elman.online

To find out more, please contact: ADM_Undergrad@ntu.edu.sg